

PSYCHIATRY

Psychiatry medical billing can be tedious, time consuming and labor intensive. There are many details that have to be determined such as when to use evaluation and management codes, how a testing administered by a computer or technician is to be billed, which state laws apply for particular policies and so on. This is where a medical billing firm can assist practicing psychiatrists. Billed Right will be the right partner providing quality and timely services while you focus on patient care.

We also provide ICD-10 coding.
